"UnisonIQ will be a game changer for AstraZeneca. We're already leveraging Companion to support adoption. Taking it further with UnisonIQ and agents for different personas will augment planners with intelligence and help them move away from the daily planning grind."

Mark Trainor,
Senior Director of Global Transformation and Technology, AstraZeneca.

From sensing change to acting with confidence. Fast.

AI engines

Transparent recommendations with instant scenario comparison

UnisonIQ builds on OMP's proven AI engines, embedded in Unison Planning™ and natively aware of real-world constraints and business KPIs. This ensures fast, explainable recommendations grounded in the operational reality of complex, global supply chains.

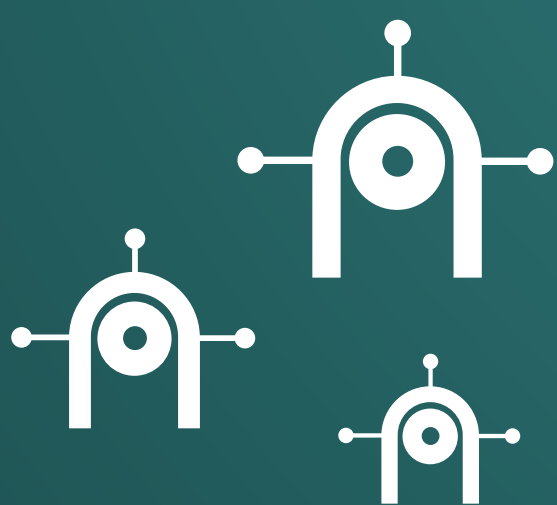

Unison Companion

Unison Planning's built-in expert

Unison Companion is a generative AI assistant embedded in Unison Planning, helping teams explore scenarios, adapt plans, and focus attention on the decisions that matter most.

Always-on agents

The next evolution of AI-assisted planning

As supply chain leaders embrace AI, persona-based agents come into place to continuously monitor events, detect risks and opportunities, and propose - or execute pre-approved - actions. Always online, they provide explainable recommendations, keeping your team in control of the decisions that matter.

The result: truly proactive, decision-centric planning.
